

AFTER DINNER SPEAKING AND EVENTS

Matt is a former FA Premier League and FIFA International Referee, part of the inaugural group of officials that turned professional in 2001.

Matt's after-dinner and social functions are a great mix of facts, comedy and audience interaction. He speaks openly about his experiences on and off the field of play which produces a fascinating insight into the world of the International Referee.

With a wealth of entertaining anecdotes up his sleeve (which also contains the notorious elbow encountered by Robbie Savage and immortalised on YouTube), Matt has become a sought-after speaker at conferences, dinners and other events.

TESTIMONIALS

"Matt spoke at our 'World Cup' event in June as we entertained a large number of our clients and professional contacts. He was very entertaining, and an enthralling evening was had by all."

Chris Hart, CEO, Wollen Michelmore Solicitors

"I have used Matt on a number of occasions as both a motivational speaker at business meetings and as a guest speaker at after-dinner events and he has always delivered. He has the kudos that audiences respect."

Andrew Carpenter, CEO, Constructing Excellence South West
